

Metropolitan Hospital Center is located at 1901 First Avenue between 97th and 99th Streets in Manhattan. It is easily accessible by subway, bus and car.

Please note: Due to ongoing construction of the Second Avenue subway, visitors are asked to take special precautions along the construction route. Bus routes may also be affected.

By subway

6 train to 96th Street. Walk east to Second Avenue.

By bus

M96 (crosstown) to First Avenue

M15 or M15-SBS (uptown) to 97th Street

M15 (downtown) to 99th Street

M15-SBS (downtown) to 100th Street

Other nearby bus routes, which may require a transfer to the M96 include M1, M2, M3, M4, M101, M102, and M103.

By car

From the FDR Drive take 96th Street exit and proceed to 97th Street and First Avenue. There is a limited amount of metered parking spaces surrounding the hospital. Parking lots can also be found along First, Second and Third Avenues.